Eurazeo PME publishes a new integrated annual report for 2014 The first integrated investment management report

Eurazeo PME, the Eurazeo Group subsidiary specialised in the transformation of French small and mid-sized enterprises (SMEs) into global intermediate-sized companies, is publishing its annual investment activity report in a new integrated format.

Adhering to best practices, this report goes beyond the current regulatory requirements for financial reporting. The aim is to provide a precise, concise, prospective and transparent picture of all components of Eurazeo PME's activity and business plan by addressing all stakeholders. At the behest of the Chairman of the Executive Board, Olivier Millet, and Eurazeo's Head of CSR, Sophie Flak, and after six annual report publications incorporating CSR reporting, Eurazeo PME continues to lead the way by incorporating CSR into its investment management reporting.

This new integrated report differs in that it offers:

- Coherent integration of financial and extra-financial data demonstrating how resources, risks and impacts are managed, as part of a deliberate approach to optimise production factors and reduce external impacts;
- A formalised approach to the investment company's specific value creation model and investments: this is the first time that all strategic drivers are described in one published document;
- Greater transparency concerning the management of risks and opportunities;
- Information taking account of the expectations of all stakeholders, from investors to investment managers, including economic players, in an effort to report on all governance and monitoring processes.

Eurazeo PME plans to add to this new process over the coming years by incorporating improvements based on the remarks sent to it after this first publication.

For Olivier Millet, Chairman of Eurazeo PME's Executive Board: "In this integrated annual investment report, we combine financial and extra-financial information to further meet the growing requirements of investors. It allows us to include more details of our vision as responsible investors with a view to convincing more stakeholders of the relevance of our model".
