ERIC SCHAEFER, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF EURAZEO CAPITAL, MEMBER OF THE 2016 CLASS OF THE PRESTIGIOUS YOUNG LEADERS PROGRAM

Eric Schaefer, Director of Eurazeo Capital, is a member the 2016 class of young French leaders of 2016, as selected by the French-American Foundation.

The French-American Foundation was created in 1976 on the occasion of the US Bicentennial, to promote dialogue between France and the United States. The Foundation brings together leading figures, providing a platform for privileged and permanent exchange across the Atlantic.

Its "Young Leaders" flagship program was established in 1981 to bolster relations between France and the United States. There are now more than 450 leaders who channel relations between the two countries at the highest level of business, media, research, politics, the military sector and culture.

Eric Schaefer is a graduate of HEC and Ecole Polytechnique. He joined the Eurazeo investment team in 2004 and has contributed to the analysis of several investment opportunities and investment monitoring in various industry and service sectors. Specifically, he helped to carry out or monitor investments in Eutelsat, B&B Hotels, Europcar, Elis, and Asmodee and with the acquisition of some ten emblematic European chocolate and confectionery brands (Carambar, Poulain, Krema, etc.), which will be developed within a new group. Eric will soon move to New York where he will participate in the opening of Eurazeo North America. This office will open during the summer and will comprise six to seven persons, including three new American colleagues. Its purpose will be to invest directly in US companies.

Eric Schaefer, Executive Director of Eurazeo Capital stated:

"I am particularly proud of my selection by the French-American Foundation and being part of the 2016 class of the prestigious Young Leaders Program. The individuals chosen come from a wide range of backgrounds, which will favor the quality of our exchanges and the sharing of experience in order to foster Franco-US relations."

About Eurazeo
