EURAZEO EARNS TOP SCORES FROM UN PRI

Paris, 5th August 2020 – Today, Eurazeo announced that it has achieved the maximum score (A+) in each of the four assessment categories relating to its professions within the UN PRI's most recent survey. These scores are testament to Eurazeo's excellence in ESG.

Launched by the United Nations in 2006, the UN Principles for Responsible Investment (UN PRI) is the leading global initiative in support of responsible investment, with more than 3,000 signatories worldwide. The UN PRI promotes a set of six voluntary investment principles that offer guidance on incorporating environmental, social and governance factors into investment practices. By implementing these principles, its signatories are contributing to the development of a more sustainable global financial system. Eurazeo was among the UN PRI's first signatories, having signed up to the initiative in 2009.

In the 2020 survey, Eurazeo was awarded the maximum score (A+) in four assessment categories: Strategy & Governance, Private Equity (indirect), Fixed Income (direct) and Private Equity (direct). Eurazeo's scores are thus above the median score of UN PRI signatories within its sector in each of these categories. This achievement demonstrates the quality of the Sustainability & Impact strategy pursued by the group across all its activities.
